as the sun rises
we, the cadets of massanutten academy, will rise with alacrity to accept the challenge of a day, for it is not for us alone.

the sun rises;
fresh for the new:
of honor
of happiness of honesty
fresh for the renewal:
of knowledge of friendship
of the search for our role.

DEDICATION

KATHARINE BENCHOFF

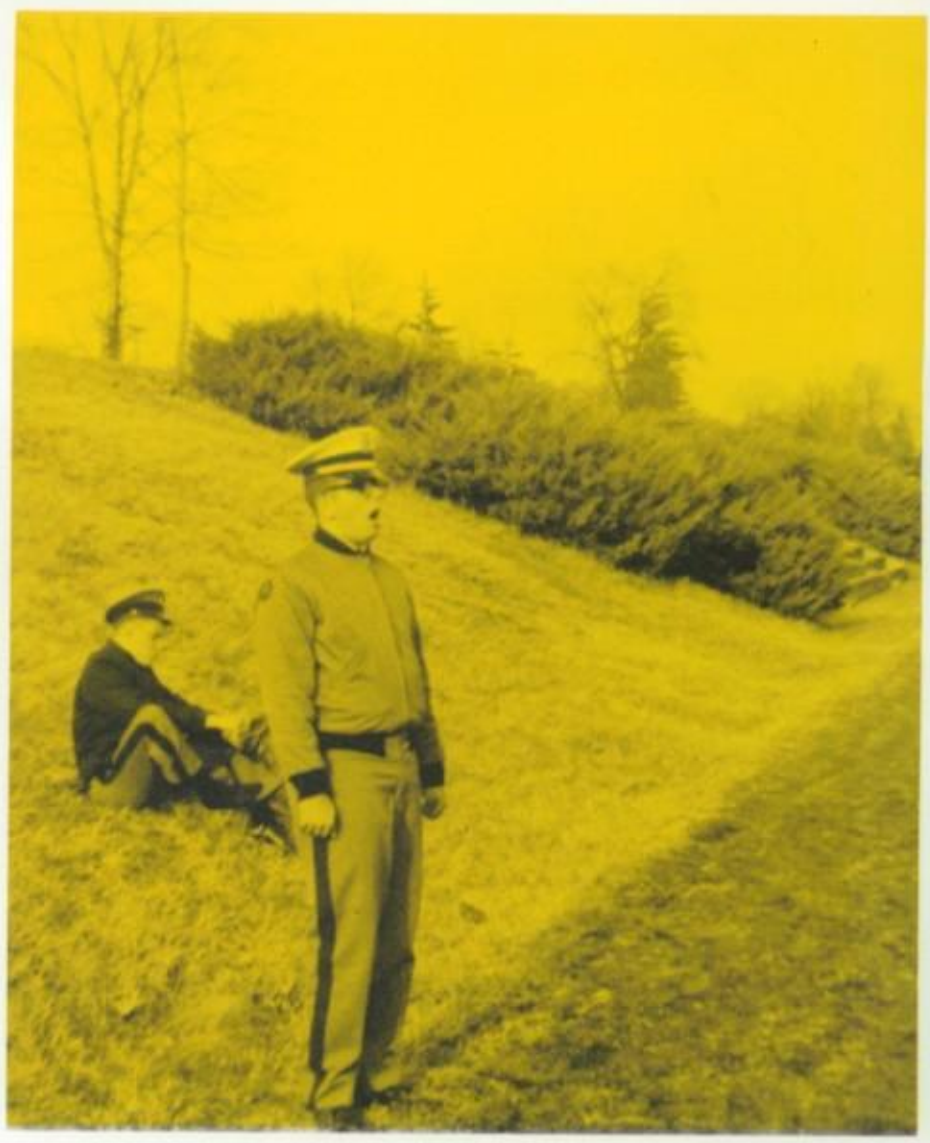
As tradition, the Massanutten Academy has dedicated its yearbook to one member of the faculty who has shown great interest in the advancement of the school and the student. This year we wish to recognize one who worked for years for the advancement of the school. Through her, the Alumni Association has finally come alive here at the Academy. Her aimes are high and those who are acquainted with her will be sure of her success. To one who is continuing to make the Benchoff name a truly great tradition here at the Academy, with great respect and esteem we sincerely dedicate the 1970 edition of the ADJUTANT to Mrs. Katharine Benchoff.

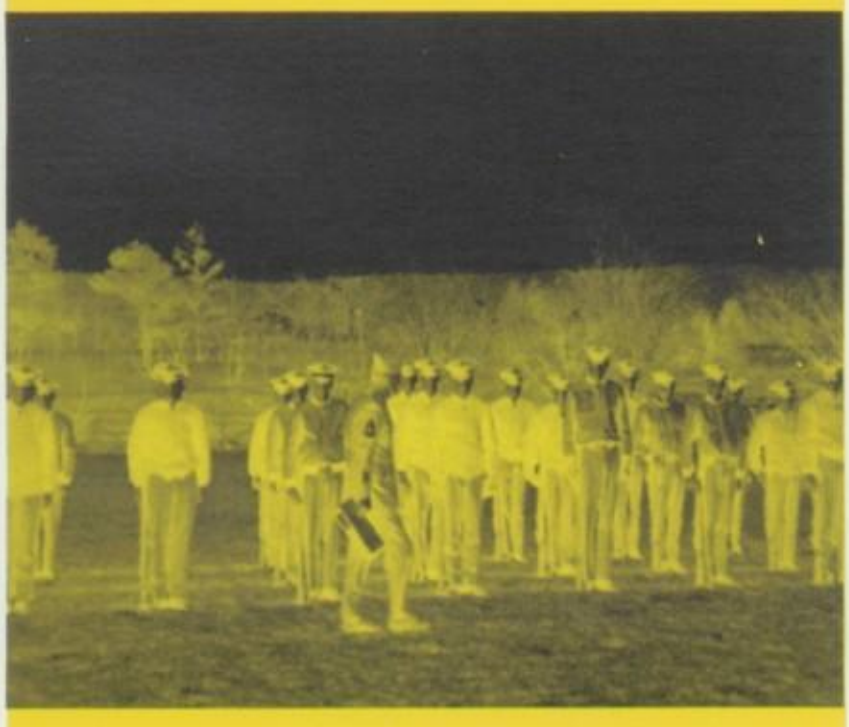
Dedication to her work

A happy face

Dedication to the school

the sun prepares for day;
the sun accepts its calling;
the sun shines sure;
the sun shines constant;
the sun knows no dying,
we too.





at sunset we think
of that day's calling.
the setting is so true;
confident assured reflective.
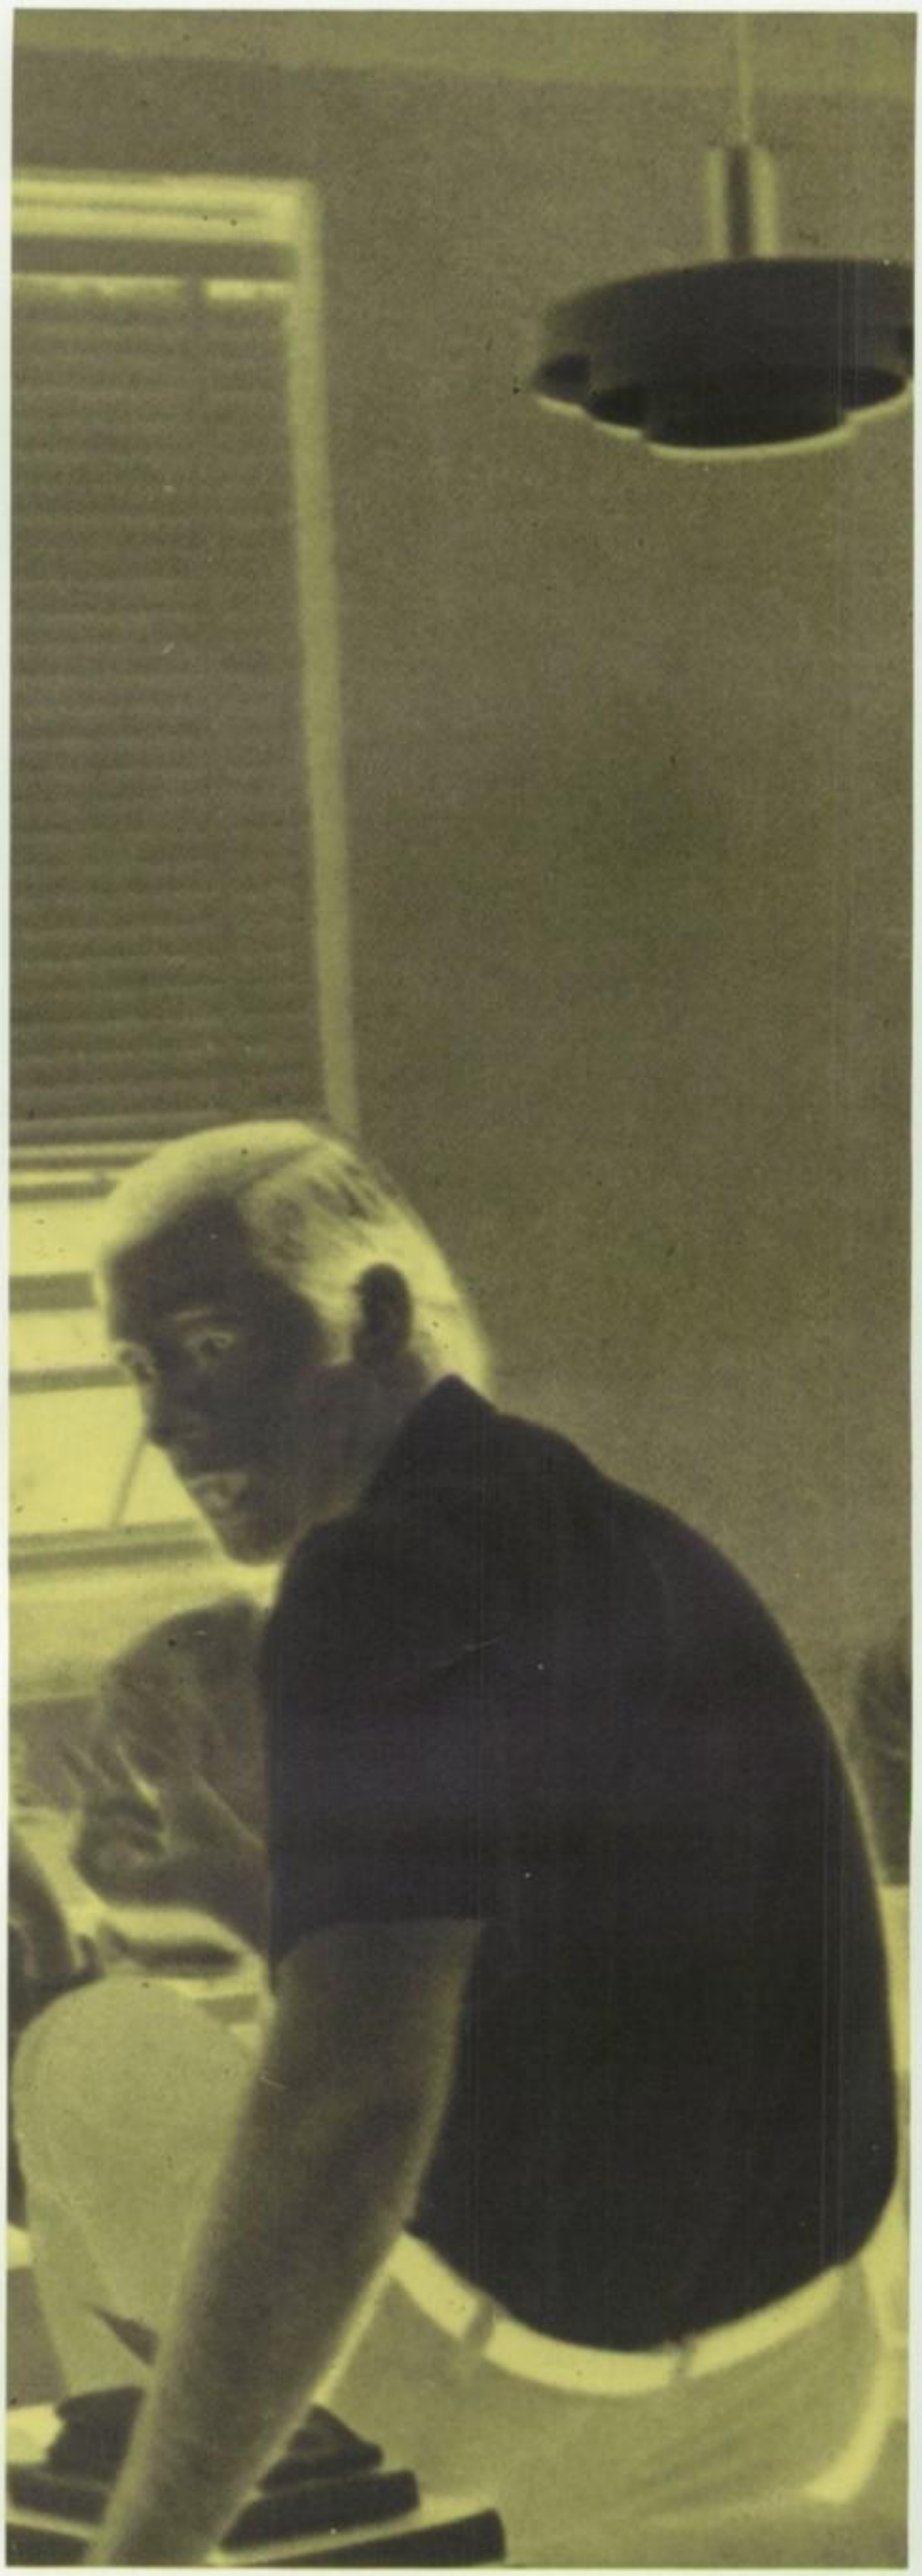
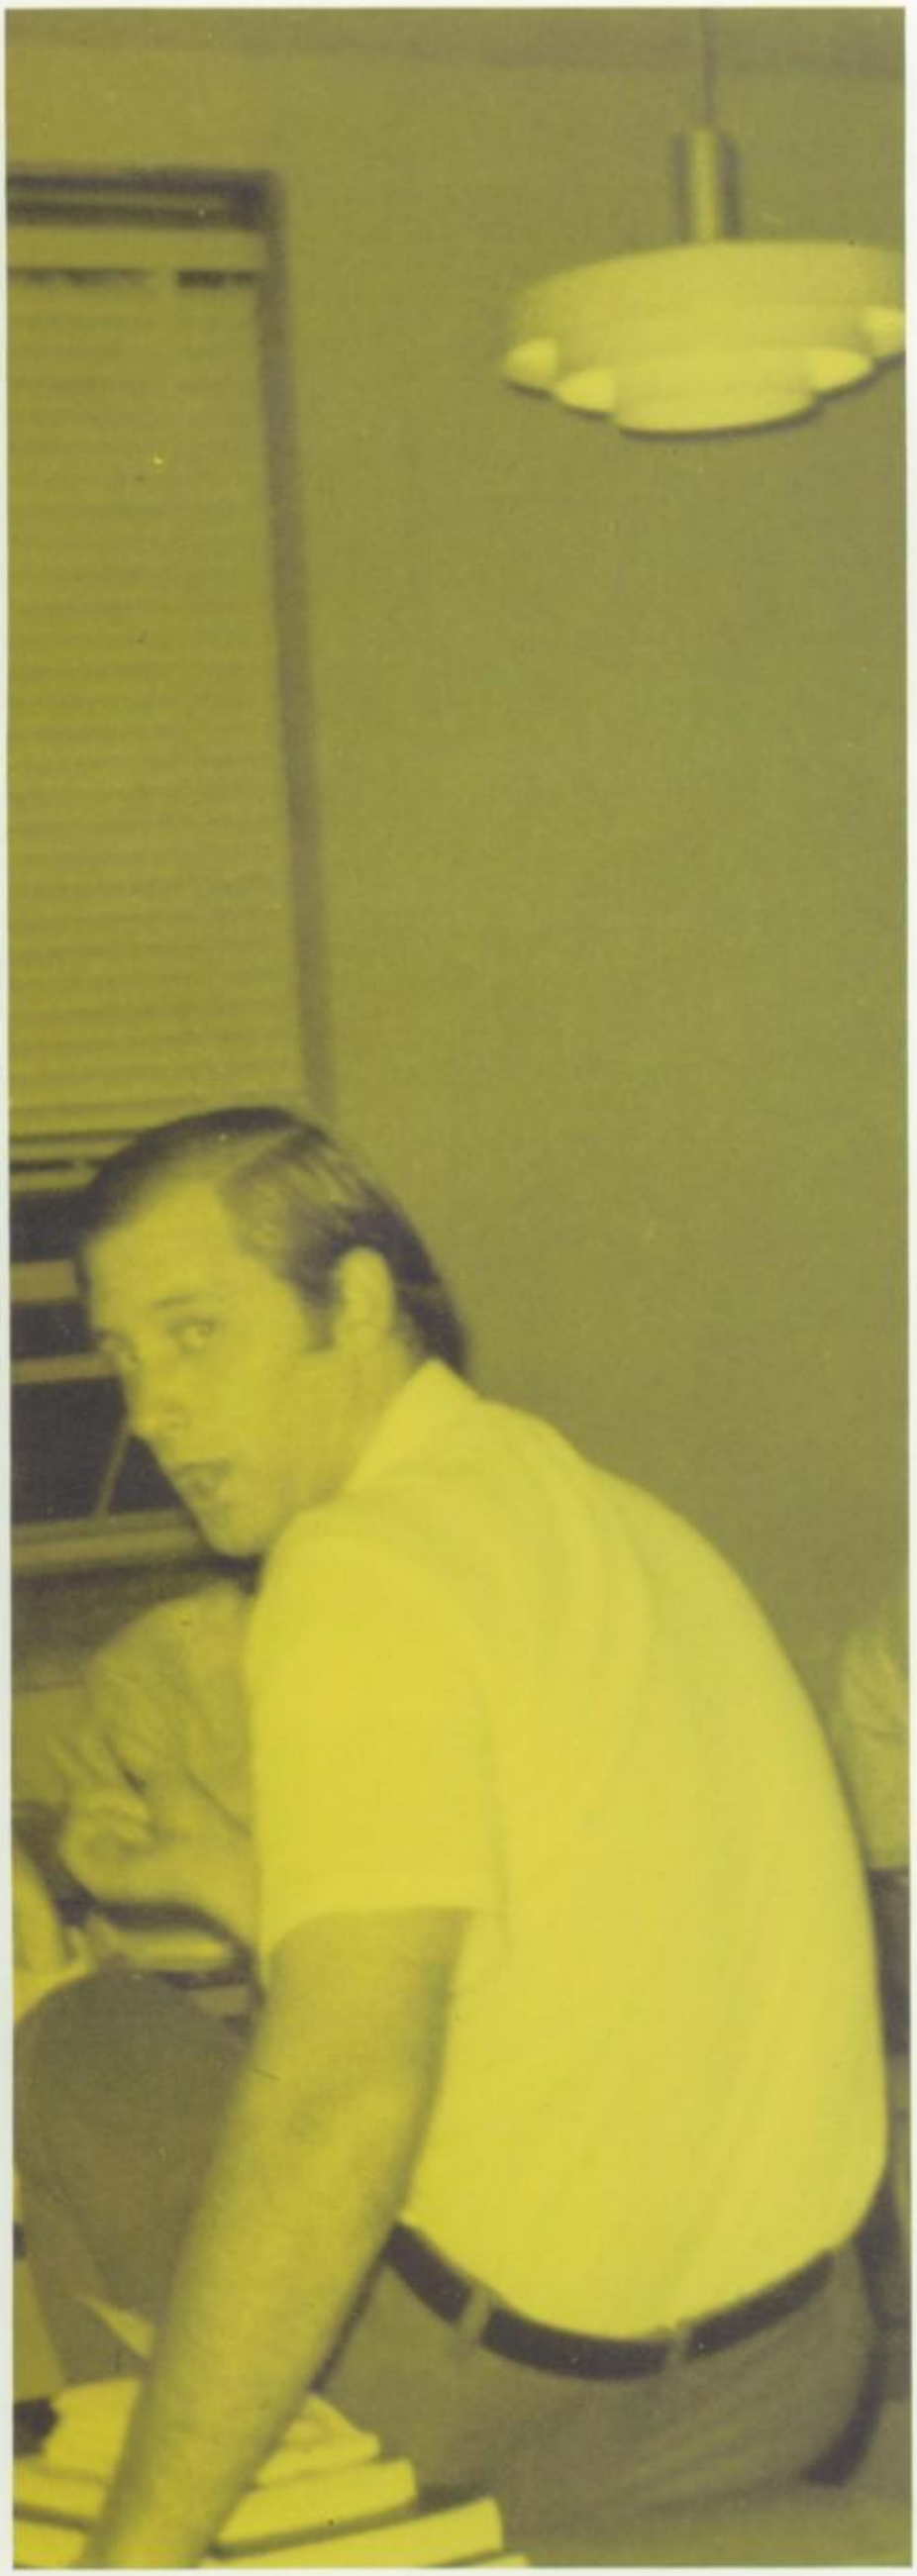
we are as true.

we will sleep
a light sleep.
no slumber for men.
the cycle will soon begin:
sunrise and sunset.



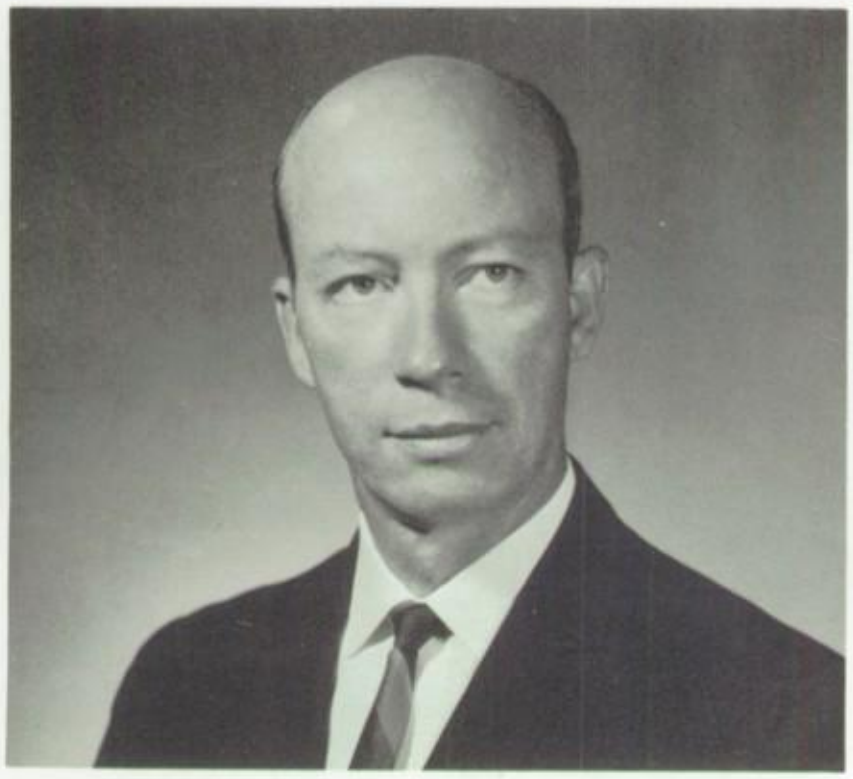


FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

GORDON D. BOWMAN
Virginia Polytechnic Institute
President

Gordon D. Bowman has not only the respect and admiration of the Academy but also the respect of the Shenandoah Valley. He is an important industrailist and civic leader. Since his first association with the school in 1954, he has aided Massanutten Academy in its growth not only as Chairman of the Building Committee but also as a member of the Board of Trustees. Now that he is President of the Academy the school can look forward to a long and prosperous future.



L. D. GRAHAM, M.A.
Col. USAF, (Ret.)
Appalachian State University
University of Florida
University of North Carolina Superintendent

Colonel Graham came to Massanutten Academy from Oak Ridge Military Institute in North Carolina where he served as mathematics instructor, coach, Director of Intramural Athletics, Academic Dean of the College Department, and finally, as Headmaster. He is listed in the 1969 edition of Outstanding Personalities of the South and is a member of Civitan International. Colonel Graham has the task of co-ordinating all departments and setting the policy for the school.

PAUL L. MAXWELL, B.S., M. Ed.
Grove City College
University of Pittsburgh
Dean of Faculty
Executive Assistant to President

Paul L. Maxwell, in his position as Dean of Faculty, is dedicated to improving the academic standards of the school. He not only directs the Faculty into bringing to reality an educational opportunity that is among the best in the nation, but he also counsels the individual cadet concerning his academic future. His steadfastness to the Academy helps to make it what it is today.

R. K. McCLELLAND
Lt. Col. USMC (Ret.)
Grove City College
Commandant of Cadets

Colonel McClelland is responsible, and bears that responsibility well, for the conduct of the Corps of Cadets. He provides a stern and experienced hand in the counseling of young adults. His loyalty and sacrifices to the Corps have gained him the respect of every individual in the Academy. He is a true leader.

EARL R. SMITH
First Sergeant USA, (Ret.)
Assistant Commandant of Cadets

Sergeant Smith comes to Massanutten Academy with twenty one years of military experience. He served from 1963-'66 as active duty advisor for the Massanutten Academy Military Department. Now that he has returned to the Academy, Sergeant Smith has gained the trust of the Cadet Corps. He is a man who will give you a break if you earn one.

PRESLEY J. HAYES A.A., B.A., M.ED.
Bluefield Junior College Bridgewater College
University of Virginia Guidance Counselor

Mr. Hayes, as a new member of the administration, has proven this year that he will be an asset to college–bound Cadets. He is always willing to sit down and talk with a Cadet over any problem, personal or academic. He always displays a genuine concern over each individual problem.

In this 1970 Adjutant, we want to pay tribute to all the members of the faculty. Massanutten has been blessed with some of the best teachers in their specialized fields. The teachers are always willing to help a student when he has trouble with his academic subjects. In their new roles as faculty advisors they help a cadet when he may be heading for trouble. The responsibility of these faculty officers is two fold; to help develop the cadets mind and body and help make him a better citizen.

ACTIVITIES

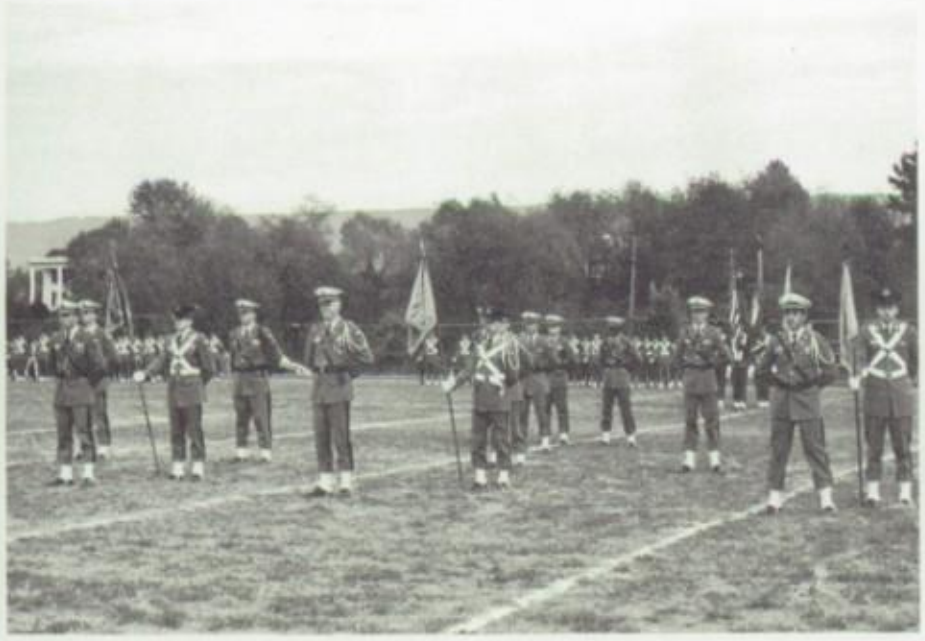
HOMECOMING 1969

Homecoming Weekend was christened by the victory of the Massanutten Soccer Team over Hargrave Military Academy by a score of 3-0. As sundown fell, the traditional bonfire and fiery speeches by the coaches inspired the cadets. Daybreak found the Corps ready and despite the frigid weather they performed beautifully.

During the parade, each Cadet Officer recieved from Major General Burba his commission. Colonel L.D. Graham presented the Non-Commissioned Officers with their warrents.

Massanutten's "Flying Colonels" made a fine show at the Homecoming game by fighting their way to victory over the United States Military Academy Prep School with a score of 7-0.

With the Pink Panther as theme, the evening dance proved a success. The Varsity Club's decorating set the stage for the conclusion of a successful 1970 Homecoming.



STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD

Left to Right: Dean Maxwell, Leach. Evans, Brooks, Merkli, Col. McCelland, Chutz.

The Student Advisory Board of 1970 is composed of the senior hall proctors of the school. They are the Cadets of the Corps who have shown allegiance to the school and its policies. The most important reason that these cadets were chosen for this position is their ability to offer constructive criticism.

They have proven through their years at the Academy that they are able to lead other Cadets as well as representing the attitude of the Corps of Cadets. The Student Advisory Board of 1970 is sure to be unique in comparison with the ones of the past.

VARSITY CLUB

This year the Varsity Club had a head start over last year, that being they are two years old. The Club this year was an organization to make a profit. They sold school pennents, which was a new way to promote school spirit. The Club also ran the refreshment stands at the football and basketball games and ran the decorating committee for Homecoming and did a magnificent job. This Club under the supervision of Col. Smith and Mr. Mauck try to make this a special organization for those who are very athletically inclined.

Does it have to be a White Christmas?

ACADEMY AWARDS

The Academy Awards Stage Band is one more way in which the Academy's students express themselves. It was conceived and is lead by John Byerly, a Cadet who has dedicated himself to music. The Stage Band participated in a various number of gatherings over a tri-state area and was on coast to coast television. When it was started last year no one suspected it would go to such heights. The Academy Awards plays for dances, presents concerts, appears on television shows, and many other activities. They have people in their organization that are sure to make a name for themselves in the world of music. The stage band has certainly added to the prestige of Massanutten Academy.

INTER-SOCIETY

The Academies annual debates this year were conducted in true brotherly competition. Opponents guiding and helping one another. Losers cheering the winners and the winners warmly thanking the defeated.

The topic selected was whether the United States should be in or out of NATO. After fine speeches from all, the Jefferson Society was declared the winners with Steve Springer being the best debater of the evening. The best declaimer went to Roy Pitts after doing "I Have a Dream" by the late Martin Luther King, Jr. The best dramatic reader went to John McVey with his version of "The Vanilla Fudge Symphony" by Carl de Angelis.

There are no real losers in the true spirit of the debates. If each individual person puts his whole mind soul into his part, he wins a greater prize than any trophy or medal can represent.

QUEEN OF MILITARY BALL

MILITARY BALL

The Thirty-Eighth Annual Military Ball weekend provided the cadets, faculty, and parents with a pleasurable break in the day-to-day routine.

Friday night led the affair off with the spirited Inter-Society Debates. Saturday morning began with an awards ceremony. Cadet SFC Roy Pitts won the Sons of the American Revolution medal for being outstanding in cadet leadership. After the ceremony, there was an Army R.O.T.C. display to which the guests were invited. The parents were then allowed to inspect the dormitories. That afternoon a concert was given by the school's outstanding band.

The night of the ball was filled with excitement and anxieties by all. The theme was "Peace" and the gym was decorated for the part. The stage was a serene "peace" garden. The music was provided by our own Academy Awards. After the traditional receiving line, the Grand March began. Sixty excited girls participated for the honor of being Miss Massanutten. Miss Carroll Smith of Allentown, Pa. was chosen the Mass. Sweetheart of 1970. The Guearing Rifles provided the entertainment of the night. Their long hours of practice was evidenced by the thrilling performance which was unsurpassed in the memories of the cadets and guests.

The memorable weekend came to a halt but left behind a feeling of happiness, satisfaction and peace.

ENSEMBLE

The Ensemble is a group of musicians who show exceptional talent outside the regular marching band. This group is known up and down the Shenandoah Valley. They travel to girls schools such as Fairfax Hall, and Penn Hall. They also appear for civic groups in Winchester, Woodstock, and Mt. Jackson. This is a group of cadets that everyone should be proud of for they truly represent Massanutten.

THE INFORMER

The Informer again this year tried to improve and expand. The economic system was still in the red. The Informer was highlighted this year by editorials such as "Claw's Corner" and "Foot" and such articles as "Attention". The Informer this year tried for satire and irony by suggesting oddities of the administration and poking fun at the faculty by brilliant cartoons. All in all we agree that this years Informer was very successful.

ADJUTANT STAFF

There is an organization here at the Academy that is often over-looked, but the 1970 ADJUTANT STAFF has proved its ability to be recognized. As the Staff worked together this year, they have tried to present the happenings throughout the year in a frank and honest way. Unlike the yearbook in the past which presented some areas of the school in a brighter light rather than what it is in reality, the 1970 ADJUTANT STAFF feels that basically they have reflected the attitude of the corps. One of the major differences between this years ADJUTANT and those of the past is that the 1970 ADJUTANT was produced by the students, for the students, and about the students. Although changing Advisors halfway through the year, it proved to be of no hindrance to their progress. Their goals were set high and their most efficient staff managed to meet them.

SPORTS

ATHLETIC STAFF

The Athletic Staff at Massanutten this year brought to a realization many successful and winning seasons. The dedicated group of men inspired their groups of boys in two successful and dedicated teams of men. They and the Cadets were unified by one idea and that was bringing glory to Massanutten. Massanutten will always have teams to be proud of as long as these men are here to lead us.

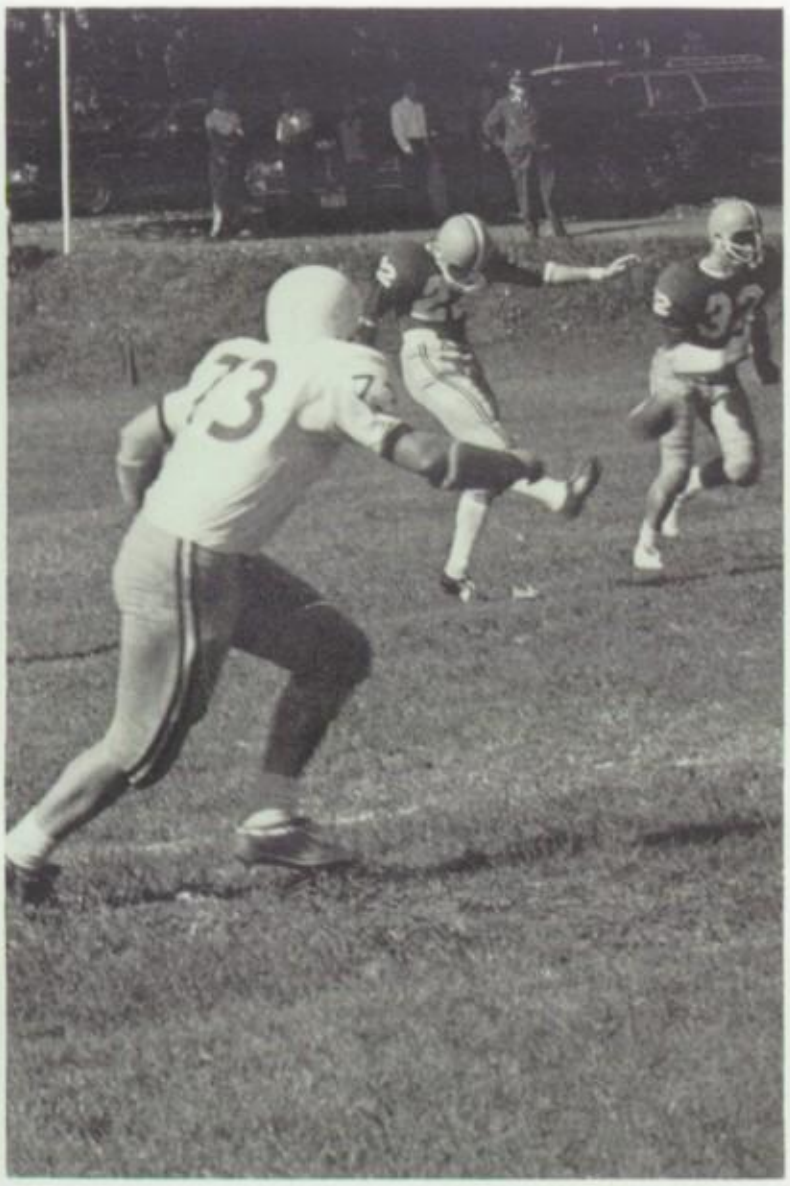
VARSITY FOOTBALL

Here comes the team.

Citied as one of his finest teams ever by Coach John Lee, the Flying Colonels set out for the VMSL Football Championship. Opening with a 44-0 thrashing of the W&L frosh, the Purple and Gold rolled over Augusta, Hargrave, Greenbrier, and USMAPS, all by the shutout route. Headed by Coaches Hubbard and Catlett the defence led by linebackers Rogers and Kelly and Magowan. Tackles Beckwith and Pasi, and Ends Edwards and Wagner performed exceptional well. With a more than adequet offence behind the blocking of Adams, Cherkiss, Murphy, and Klienhenz, the passing of quarterback Jones to wingback Kidwell and split-end Tryens, and the brusing running of Solomon and Courter, the offence averaged 20 points per game. But the dream was shattered with a 28-0 loss to Columbian Prep. However the Colonels bounced back big to defeat Staunton, before falling to Fork Union in the season finale.



And there off.

The team this year exhibited a tremendous amount of team spirit inspite of the 2-3-1 record. There was a lot of new blood on the football squad this year. Although the team was off to a bad start with a 38-0 loss to Central High, the J.V.'s bounced back to upset Blue Ridge in a 22-20 victory. The team next displayed it's ability against Mercersburg in a tie of 14-14. They lost the next two games against Staunton and Randolph-Macon, both of whom were defeated by Augusta. The Massanutten-Augusta showdown came as a climax to the season. The junior Colonels defeated Augusta 34-8 in a brilliant exhibition of fine coaching and team effort.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Massanutten's strong Varsity Basketball team this year played in many games without defeat. The team was a success in its first year as a part of the Virginia Military School League. The Flying Colonels were coached by two men fully dedicated to basketball. They were Coach Catlett and Coach Hubbard. This year's team created a good image for Massanutten as being a very tough basketball school. Through their victories play the team captured many fans throughout the season to cheer them on.

The team this year had tri-captains; Tom Mangum, Pat McGowan, and Pat Kelly. The captains, along with the other members showed their never ending spirit in defending their title as number 1. Each ball player brought back happy moments after victories over teams throughout the state. Next year will be another fine year for the team and they will be ready for the stiff competition in the league.

The J. V. Basketball team was as successful this year as any team we have ever had. The team had a few seniors and a promising group of underclassmen to carry on the good standing of the team. The team this year played stiff competition in the Virginia Military School League and proved to be equal and in many cases far superior than their opponents. The opponents of the Junior Varsity squad were usually larger, but the baby Colonels found victories through their ability to pass and shoot the ball with excellency. The team this year had great morale and confidence to help them in their seldom short comings which turned out to be victories. Great improvement was made this year from the boys that played last year. Hard work and precision throughout the season helped bring a winning season to Massanutten Squad. For next year the Colonels will have a head start on a good ball club because of the tradition carried on from this year's excellent squad.

The Massanutten Soccer Team was a highly spirited club. Although they finished the second half of the season with a 3-2-1 record, the over all record was 3-8-1. The team did an outstanding job for having so many new players who had never played before. The best game of the season was during Homecoming when Massanutten defeated the highly potent offence of Hargrave Military Academy with a score of 3-0. The Colonels played Harker Prep both home and away and was successful in both outings. The first game was very close while the final game was the game which ended in a barrage of goals for them as they won 5-1. Looking into next season the team under Coach Mauck should have a successful year. He has many fine young players returning from this year.

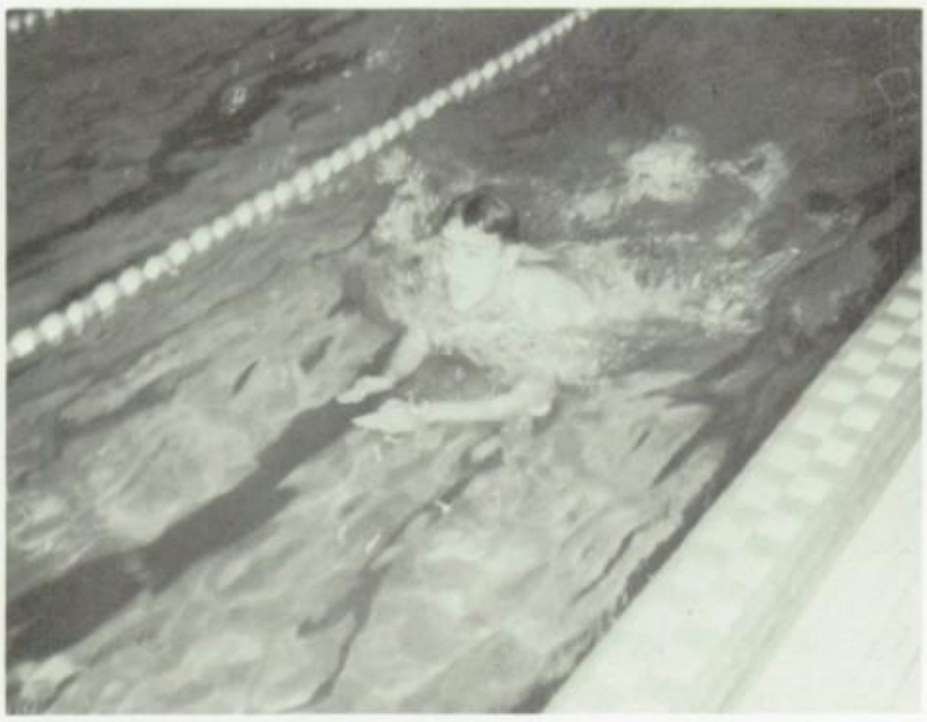
SWIMMING TEAM



Swimming is a varsity sport that requires both endurance and skill. In spite of an off year, the team remained high in spirit and morale. The team has received the best of guidance under the leadership of Mr. Johnston and Mr. Mercer.

John Brooks and Barry Moos exhibited form and grace as the only two members of the diving squad. Co-captains Henry Sharman and Kirt Smith along with a new member, Bruce Smith, provided tough competition for the opposing teams. The coaches are looking forward to seeing them back next year with the other members of this year's squad.

Massanutten Academy gives an "Aqua salute" to those members of the swimming team for their hard work.

RIFLE TEAM

The rifle team this year was characterized by intense competitive spirit. Under the direction of Sgt. Johnson, the rifle team reached the apogee of their ability. The team this year represented Massanutten in the Military League and brought prestige to the school. Riflery has always been an intricate part of the Academy and it will continue to be in the future.

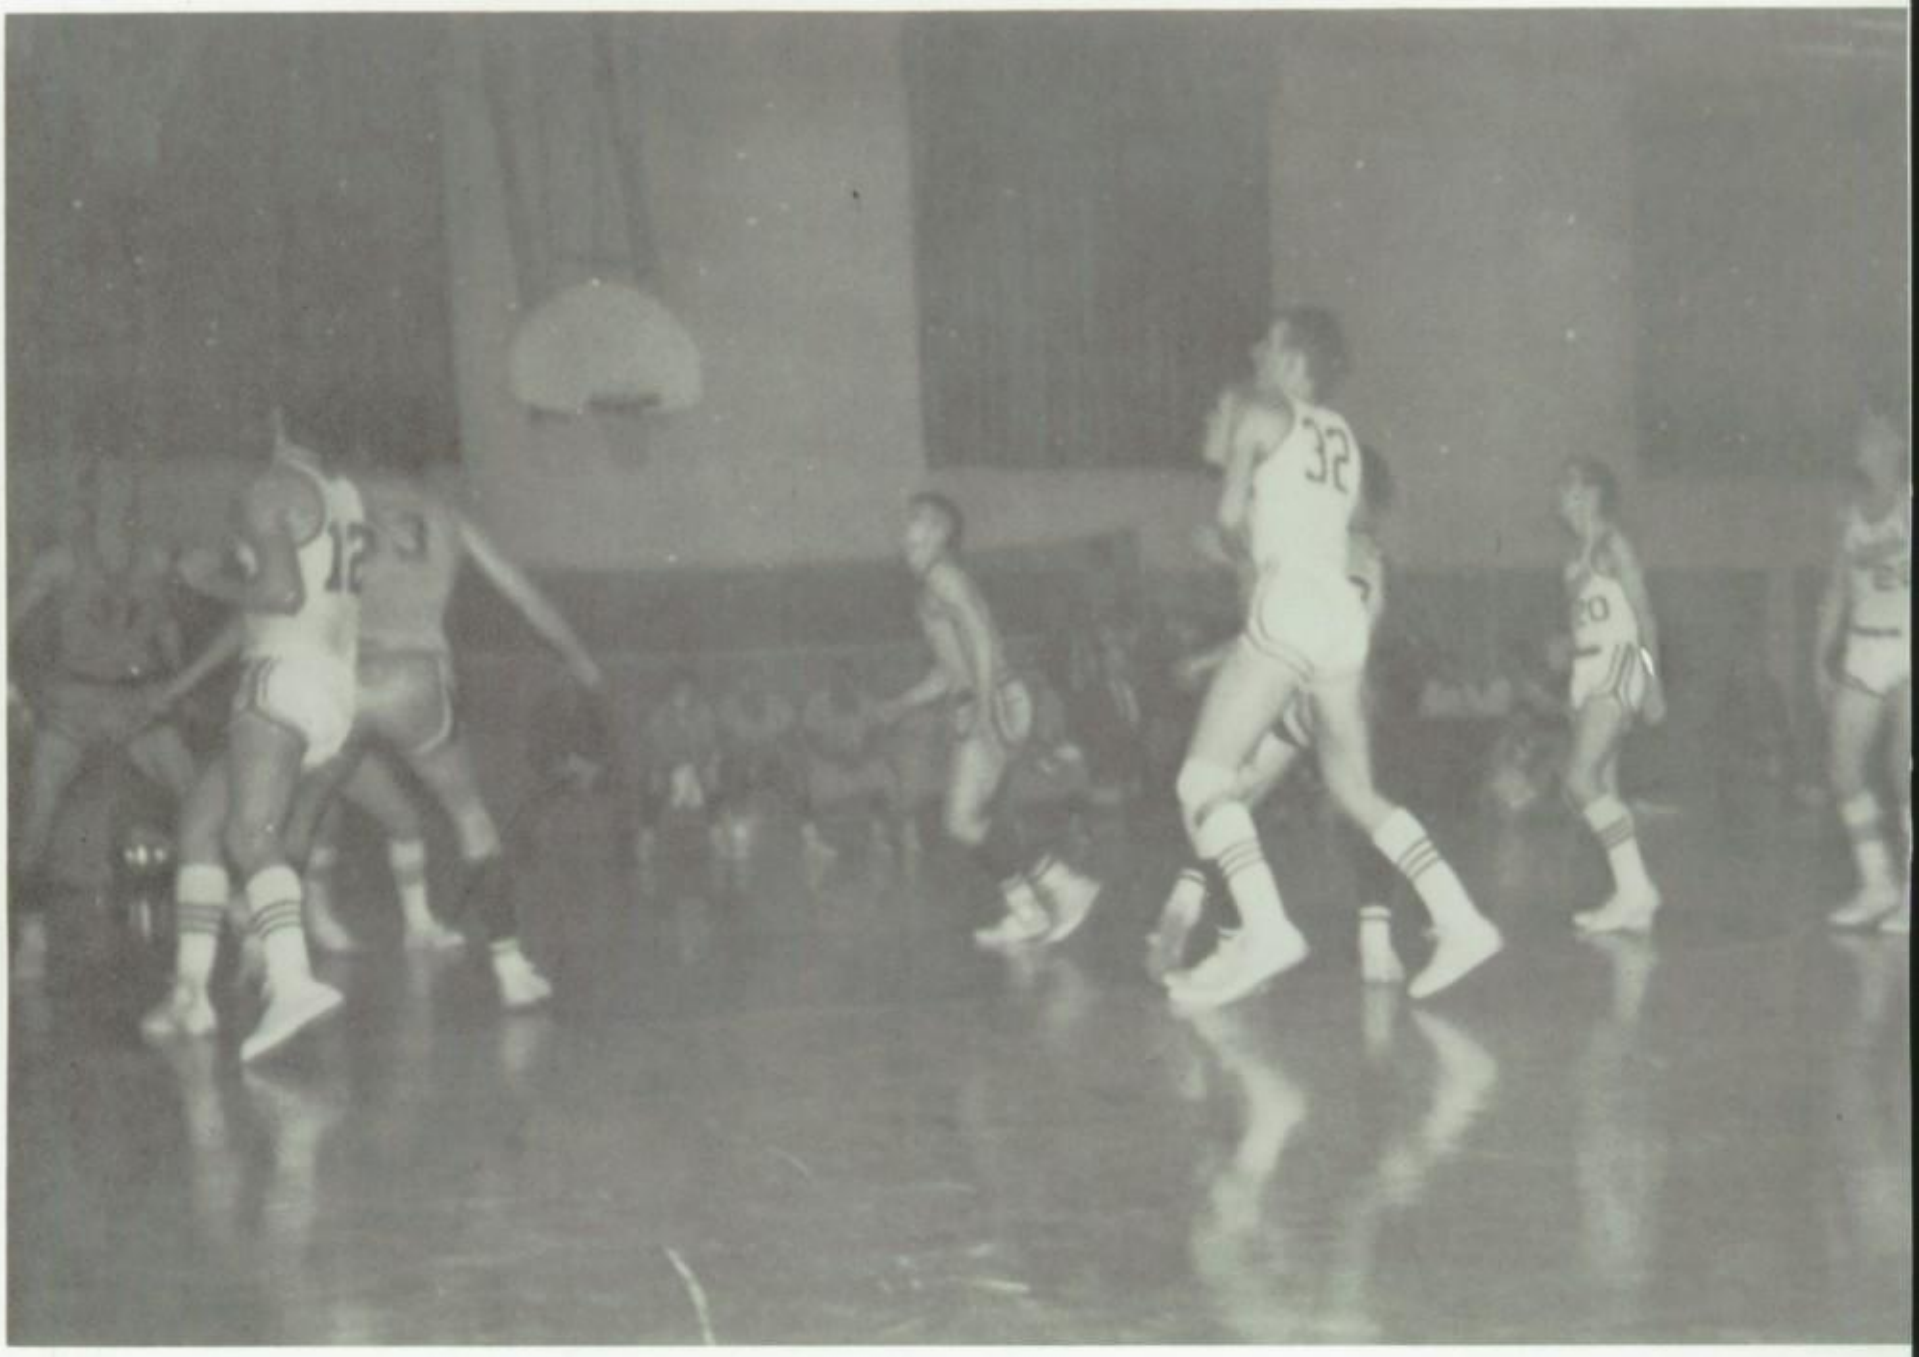
GREAT MOMENTS IN SPORTS



This year the many members of the various sports activities, offered at M.A., exemplified tremendous spirit and enthusiasm. Captured here by our yearbook photographer is this spirit and enthusiasm shown in great moments in sports.

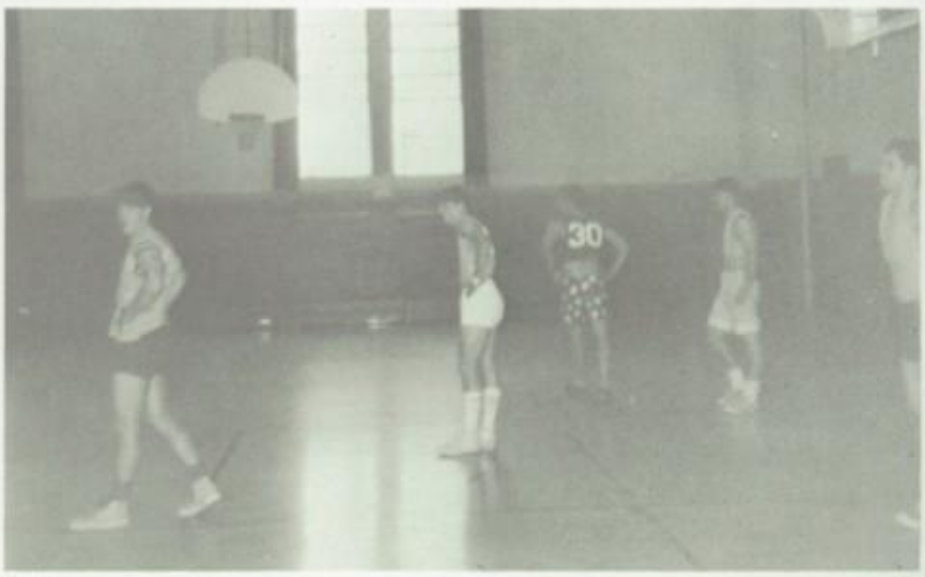
INTRAMURALS

Intramurals for this year have, as usual, been very successful. There was a large amount of spirit and rough competition which made the whole program exciting. There was a sport for every individual; football, soccer, basketball, riflery, volleyball, swimming, tennis, and softball. The entire program is supervised by one individual, Mr. Womble, who helps to make it what it is. This athletic program contributes to the spirit and the stamina of the corps.



CHEERLEADERS

This year the Cheerleaders aided greatly in the spirit of the Corps. They had several new ideas by which to boost the moral of the Cadets. The Cheerleaders sold Massanutten pennents and held several special pep rallies. At Homecoming the Cheerleaders took charge of a bon-fire pep rally which lead the Colonels on to victory over USMAPS. Thourghout the year the Cheerleaders lead our teams into one of the most successful seasons Massanutten has ever seen.

THE FIRST CAPTAIN'S FAIRWELL

First as Battalion Commander of the Corps of Cadets of MA, I would like to express my thanks and sincerities to the Military Department, Corps of Cadets and members of the administration for bestowing upon me the honors of this position.

I know that there have been times throughout the year when everyone in the school has wanted to give up, probably moreso myself than any other person. However I feel that there have been just as many good times, if not more, than there have been bad ones. After four years here at MA it will be hard to leave. Not so much the school but the people in it and the friends I have made here. Many of you I will never see again, which may not matter to you, however, I can honestly say that I don't think there is one single person that I really disliked this year.

Before closing I would like to thank a certain elite person in my eyes, you, Mark Evans, for the help and friendship you have given me. You have been just like a brother to me. I would also like to thank Terry Milita and Paul Green, to name a few, who have been two of the best friends I could have ever asked for during my stay here at MA.

In closing I would like to wish all of you very happy and successful years in the future.

May God bless you, good luck and best of luck to good ole "Uncle Eddy."

Many Thanks To All,

Richard Fleming Leach

IN TRIBUTE TO PAUL L. MAXWELL

In this space we the members of the ADJUTANT Staff want to pay a small tribute to Paul L. Maxwell. He spent five and one-half years at Massanutten as Dean and he dedicated himself to the advancement of the school. We wish him the best of luck in future years and thank him for all he has done to help each one of us. We also hope that in the years to come, he will think of us while he is catching all those fish.

Another year has come to an end and it is the time for the students to look back over the year and remember all the happy times along with the bad times encountered over the year. The yearbook has tried to capture all these moments in pictures and in words. This book is put out by the students and for the students. I want to take this space to thank everyone who helped to make the 1970 ADJUTANT possible. I want to thank the staff, especially my two co-editors Terry Milita and Stephen Merkli for their time and efforts in making this one of the best yearbooks in Massanutten's history. I also want to thank Mr. Ellis and Mr. Perry of Hunter Publishing Company for all their help and advice in the proper ways of putting together a yearbook. Of course, no yearbook is complete without pictures, and I want to thank Mr. Morrison of Morrison Studios and Andre Studios for taking a great deal of time in turning out quality pictures. I wish to thank the administration and faculty who put up with the many days we missed classes to work on the yearbook. And, thanks to our two faculty advisors Mr. Vic Ialongo and Mr. J. R. Cubbage whose guidance was invaluable in putting this book together. Last but not least, a big thanks to you-the members of the Cadet Corps-for without you a yearbook is not possible. I sincerely hope that the 1970 ADJUTANT will bring happiness to you the rest of your lives and that it may in some small way bring back the many memories of your stay here at the Massanutten Academy.
